MESSAGE

On the occasion of the 6th Convocation of Indira Gandhi Delhi Technical University for Women (IGDTUW), I congratulate all the graduating students and wish them the very best. I am sure that the young women will accomplish their dreams and make their alma mater and our great nation proud.

It is heartening to know that IGDTUW has provided a holistic platform for women students to excel in various fields like Engineering, Sciences, Architecture and Humanities. Today's Convocation marks an important milestone in the educational journey of the students. It is an occasion when the new batch of qualified professionals would be placed in the hands of the society for its betterment. It is a matter of pride for all of us to see the young women graduates of IGDTUW evolve into skilled professionals, entrepreneurs and leaders of tomorrow.

I convey my heartiest congratulations to the staff and faculty and to the graduates being awarded degrees. I am sure the technical knowledge they have acquired, will stand them in good stead. The passion of the young women graduates to accept challenges would empower them further to achieve their goals.
