

MESSAGE

On this auspicious occasion of the Sixth Convocation of Indira Gandhi Delhi Technical University for Women, I feel immensely happy in congratulating all the graduating students and wish them the very best for their future dreams, goals and aspirations.

It is a matter of great pride that women students are excelling in various fields of Engineering, Sciences and Architecture. Today's convocation marks an important milestone in the educational journey of all graduating students. A new batch of qualified professionals comprising leaders of the future in their chosen domains, is stepping out to serve the nation. Young women graduating from IGDTUW have the promise and potential to evolve into skilled professionals, entrepreneurs and experts of their generation, who will in turn, inspire others.

I extend my heartiest congratulations to the staff and faculty members and to the graduates being awarded the degrees. I am sure the technical knowledge they have acquired will stand them in good stead. The passion of the young women graduates to accept challenges would empower them to achieve their goals.

My blessings and best wishes to the graduating students.
